

red, the petition of sundry inhabitants of Queen-Anne's county, praying a levy to be made on said county, for the purposes therein mentioned, reported, that the said committee have had the same under consideration, and that they ask to be discharged from the further consideration thereof, and also that they may have leave to withdraw the said petition; which was accordingly granted.

Mr. Crabb asked and obtained leave of the house, to withdraw from its further consideration, the resolution submitted by him, on the 7th ultimo, to authorise the executive to cause certain records to be bound and rebound.

Mr. Montgomery, chairman of the committee, to whom was referred the bill from the senate, entitled, An act relating to lunatic and insane persons, reported, that the committee have had the same under consideration, and are of the opinion, that it ought to pass without amendment. The said bill was then read the second, and by a special order, the third time, considered, passed without amendment, and returned to the senate.

Mr. Edward Hughes reported a bill, entitled. A supplement to an act for the benefit of Adam Robb, executor of Upton Beall, late clerk of Montgomery county; which was read the first, and by a special order, the second time, passed without amendment and sent to the senate for their concurrence.

Mr. Tyson also reported a bill, entitled, An act for the relief of Saint-John's and Washington Colleges; which was read the first, and by a special order, the second time; when on motion by Mr. Samuel R. Smith, the further consideration thereof was referred to the first day of June next.

Mr. Teackle, from the committee on ways and means, delivered the following report, which was read:

The committee on ways and means, to whom was referred an order to inquire into the expediency of suspending, for a limited time, the granting of warrants for taking up, or locating land in Allegany county, and for repealing section 4, of the act of December session 1824, and of reviving section 38, of the act of 1812, chapter 191, to avoid the injurious effects of inordinate speculations in said lands, and to protect the interests of officers and soldiers of the revolutionary war, and their heirs, have had the same under consideration, and beg leave to report thereon, that they deem it expedient to pass enactments for the essential purposes of this inquiry. The committee therefore report a bill, entitled, An act concerning land warrants and for other purposes.

All which is respectfully submitted.

By order,

Jacob S. Smith, Com. Clk.
